

SonoCiné has demonstrated clinical outcomes.

- Reader Trial (European Radiology, October, 2010).
 - Reader Trial: examine reproducibility and trainability of the technique
 - 12 radiologists
 - 102 cases
 - All dense-breasted patients
 - Mammograms read first
 - SonoCinés read second
 - More and smaller cancers found with SonoCiné
 - Radiologists found approximately 50% of all cancers in dense-breasted patients with mammogram.
 - Radiologists found approximately 80% of all cancers by adding SonoCiné to the mammogram.
 - Radiologists found approximately 25% of sub-centimeter cancers in dense-breasted patients with mammogram.
 - Radiologists found approximately 66% of sub-centimeter cancers by adding SonoCiné to the mammogram.

CONFIDENTIAL: This paper is an opinion piece, intended for presentation to the Hologic Scientific Advisory Panel (Newport Beach, CA, October 6, 2010). It is not intended to promote any product or provide coding or reimbursement advice.